DISTRICT OF NEVADA

THEODORE LEE,

Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Defendant.

Case No. 2:14-cv-00606-RCJ-PAL

ORDER

(Mtn to Stay – Dkt. #11)

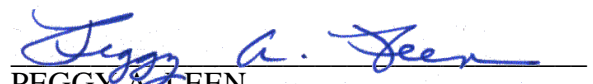

This matter is before the court on the government's Unopposed Motion to Stay All Case Deadlines (Dkt. #15). The court has considered the Motion.

The government seeks an order staying this case until after the district judge rules on the government's Special Show Cause Motion to Admit Government Attorney to Practice in the District of Nevada for Duration of Attorney's Government Employment (Dkt. #11) filed June 23, 2014. On August 22, 2014, the court entered a Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order (Dkt. #). The government seeks a stay because it cannot begin defending this action if the assigned attorney from the Department of Justice is not permitted to appear in this action on behalf of the United States. In an Order (Dkt. #17) entered October 28, 2014, the district judge granted the Motion for Special Show Cause to Admit Government Attorney.

Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that the Motion to Stay (Dkt. #15) is DENIED AS MOOT.

Dated this 26th day of November, 2014.
